Recommendation Letter for Whoa Networks.

Hello Randy,

As we work in the service industry we realize that recognition and endorsements are very important to ongoing company development. In that context, we would like to acknowledge the commitment to service excellence that Randy Simon and Whoa Networks demonstrate on an ongoing basis in their capacity as our Secure Cloud Company.

In the six months we have worked with Whoa, we have come to appreciate Randy and their company's responsiveness to our needs. They also provide us with consulting services as part of our technology package, recommending and facilitating our transition from in-house servers to the cloud which streamlined many aspects of our technology program and national operations. Whoa is also an expert in analyzing and addressing the various complex systems that can optimize a business's processes.

Randy who clearly understands the meaning of outstanding service delivery has proven over & over their commitment to us. They also convey passion for excellence to those they direct. Randy maintains a flexible approach to various challenges and are thus able to meet the evolving needs of their clients. The Whoa Cloud service has changed our business forever, and now we embark on Las Vegas and Tampa with Whoa.

Please feel free to call me on my cellular phone at 954.871.5090 should you need any additional information about these tremendous individuals their great company.

Very truly yours,
